

---

XIX Biennial IASC Conference
'The Commons We Want: Between Historical Legacies and Future Collective Actions'

---

June 19th – 24th 2023
University of Nairobi

Excursion Loop 1 Programme
Northern Plains of Kajiado – Ngong Hills
Thursday 22 June 2023

Theme: Land use Dynamics and Management of the urban and range commons

Guide: B. Kiteme

0800 hrs: Brief route description and main highlights
0830 hrs: Departure from University 8-4-4 Parking Bay

How to locate the departure point: Walk from the conference venue  and follow the red line to the  where the cars will be parked.

1000 hrs: 1st Stop discussions, at the Exit of Kitengela township, focusing on land use transformation along the Nairobi-Isinya corridor: Urban sprawl, the Metropolitan and implications on the range commons

1030 hrs	2 nd Stop discussions, at mid-way point to Kiserian township, focusing on Land use changes and impacts on pastoralism in the Kajiando Plains
1100 hrs:	45 Minutes tea/Coffee stop at the Entrakuet Resort ( please have enough local currency for coffee/tea and accompaniments )
1230 hrs:	Photo stop at viewpoint – Kona Baridi
1300 hrs:	Lunch break at Lesiolo Hills ( please have enough local currency for coffee/tea and accompaniments )
1430 hrs	Visit to the KENGEN Wind Power Station at Ngong Hills
1545 hrs	Tree planting ceremony
1630 hrs	Departure for Nairobi
1800 hrs	Back to the Venue